PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENTS

Volunteered to mentor medical students and pre-medical students in technical writing skills

Backpacked ~250 mile portions of the:

- Colorado Trail
- Pacific Northwest Trail

Entry-level developer with a knack for guiding and evolving teammates, which has 6 years of training and management experience. I employ an analytical, logical, and focused approach to the challenges that drive my ambitions and tasks. As outcomes, I can grab fresh eggs from my chickens every morning, have hiked through the northwestern states, and learned a complex laboratory position from scratch. I am eager to build and grow my skills as a Full-Stack developer by helping to create, build, and implement ideas into a functional purpose.
